

0.5 Lecturer Post

Are you a qualified Optometrist or Dispensing Optician or with a BSc (Hons)?

ABDO College is offering a fantastic opportunity for a highly motivated individual to join our team of dedicated teaching staff at Godmersham, Kent.

With the introduction of our new Foundation Degree and Degree courses we are looking for someone with a degree qualification to assist with teaching, mark assessments and support students with dissertations and independent study.

We are looking for the following skills;

- The ability to teach a wide range of theory and practical subjects
- Experience with supervision of staff/trainees
- IT skills essential
- Good interpersonal skills
- The ability to work within a group and be self-motivated
- Teaching qualifications useful but not essential (but must be prepared to obtain teaching qualifications)

Those interested should send a CV and covering letter, with details of 2 referees to;

Jo Underwood, College Principal
