REGULATIONS OF
THE ASSOCIATION OF BRITISH DISPENSING OPTICIANS
(THE ASSOCIATION)

These Regulations of the Association are made by the Board of Directors of the Association on _____ pursuant to the power granted to them by Article 109 of the Association's Articles of Association and may be repealed or varied by the Board of Directors, and supersede and revoke the existing Regulations of the Association.

The definitions and interpretation which apply to the Articles of Association of the Association shall apply equally to these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires.

1 ADMISSION OF MEMBERS (ARTICLE 25)

- 1.1 There are no eligibility criteria for admission as a Member except for those stated in the Articles.
- 1.2 An applicant for a Full Member, Associate Member or Student Member must deliver to the Membership Department of the Association a duly completed application in the standard form provided by the Association.
- 1.3 An applicant for a category of Membership who has satisfied the eligibility criteria in the Articles, complied with Regulation 1.2 and commenced payment of his or her subscription shall be admitted as a Member by the Membership Department of the Association, subject to the Board of Directors' discretion under Article 26.

2 USE OF "FBDO" (ARTICLE 30)

A Fellow shall not use the designatory letters "FBDO" after his or her name when he or she has chosen to place after his or her name letters designating membership or former membership of any of the following bodies:

- FADO indicating a Fellow of the Association of Dispensing Opticians
- FFDO indicating a Fellow of the Faculty of Dispensing Opticians
- MFDO indicating a Member of the Faculty of Dispensing Opticians
- SMC (Disp) indicating a Member of the Worshipful Company of Spectacle Makers
- BOA (Disp) indicating a Member of the British Optical Association.

3 PAYMENT OF ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION (ARTICLE 34)

- 3.1 The methods for paying the subscriptions for Membership shall be those from time to time publicised by the Membership Department of the Association.
- 3.2 For the purposes of Article 34, a Member shall be deemed to have paid his or her annual subscription when he or she has commenced payment by any of the methods referred to in Regulation 3.1.

4 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS (ARTICLES 71 TO 73)

- 4.1 Each of the following is a “body” for the purposes of Articles 71.2 and 85.11:
 - 4.1.1 Association of Optometrists;
 - 4.1.2 College of Optometrists;
 - 4.1.3 Federation of Ophthalmic and Dispensing Opticians.
- 4.2 A candidate eligible to be elected a Director must be nominated in writing by six persons being Full Members or Life Members.
- 4.3 At least fifty-six days prior to the proposed date of an Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take effect, the General Secretary shall invite nominations for election as Directors. The invitation shall be sent by post to all Full Members and Life Members stating the vacancies to be filled together with the nomination form and specifying that the nomination form must be signed by six nominators and the candidate confirming his or her willingness to stand for election and that the candidate must complete and return a candidate statement in compliance with any requirements set out in the invitation. The invitation shall also state that the nomination form and candidate statement must be returned by post to the General Secretary so as to be received no later than 35 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting.
- 4.4 If the number of candidates for Directors is equal to or less than the number of vacancies the candidate(s) shall be declared to be duly elected thereto.
- 4.5 If there are more valid nominations than the number of vacancies the election to fill the vacancy(s) shall be by ballot conducted by Electoral Reform Services on behalf of the Association in accordance with the following Regulations.
- 4.6 At least 28 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take effect, Electoral Reform Services shall send by post to all Full Members and Life Members a ballot paper specifying the vacancies and containing the candidates’ statements together with instructions for voting.

- 4.7 Each Full Member and Life Member shall be entitled to cast the number of votes as equals the number of vacancies (on the basis of one vote for a candidate). Votes may be cast by telephone, post or electronically in accordance with the voting instructions given by Electoral Reform Services. The nominees equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, who receive the highest number of votes, shall be elected. If there is an equality of votes, the election shall be decided by lot conducted by Electoral Reform Services in the manner it sees fit.
- 4.8 The instructions for voting shall specify a date not later than 5 days before the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take effect by which the votes must be cast. A vote which is not cast in accordance with such instructions shall be invalid.
- 4.9 The votes cast shall be counted by Electoral Reform Services before the Annual General Meeting of the Association at which the election is to take effect and the results of the election of Directors shall be declared at the Annual General Meeting immediately following their election.

5 FILLING VACANCIES IN DIRECTORS (ARTICLE 74)

The Board of Directors may appoint a person eligible under Article 71 to fill a vacancy in the Directors PROVIDED THAT as a result of such appointment there shall not be more than one Director who is a qualified optometrist. Any person so appointed shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting of the Association and shall then be eligible for re-election. Such period of office shall be disregarded for the purposes of Regulation 6.3.

6 TERM OF OFFICE OF DIRECTORS (ARTICLE 75)

- 6.1 A Director shall take office from the close of the Annual General Meeting of the Association following his or her election, where the retiring Directors shall be deemed to retire.
- 6.2 A Director shall hold office for a term of three years at the end of which he or she shall retire and be eligible (subject to Regulation 6.3) for re-election for further terms of three years.
- 6.3 A Director who has held office for twelve consecutive years shall not be eligible for re-election until three years have elapsed thereafter.
- 6.4 "Year" for the purposes of this Regulation 6 and Regulation 8 means the period from the end of one Annual General Meeting of the Association to the end of the next Annual General Meeting of the Association.

7 ALLOWANCES AND PAYMENTS TO DIRECTORS (ARTICLES 13 AND 16)

7.1 A Director shall be entitled to be paid an allowance by the Association at a day rate or half day rate as agreed annually by the Board of Directors for the payment of locums by the Association for:

7.1.1 attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors and national committees of the Association or other meetings convened by the Association, which are in addition to 4 meetings of the Board of Directors and 2 meetings of the President's Consultation Group held in each calendar year;

7.1.2 attendance at external meetings representing the Association;

7.1.3 acting as an examiner of the Association;

7.1.4 attendance at any other event authorised by the General Secretary.

A Director shall not be paid an allowance for attendance at 4 meetings of the Board of Directors and 2 meetings of the President's Consultation Group held in each calendar year.

7.2 The allowance shall be paid either at the day rate or the half day rate depending on the time spent which includes reasonable time spent travelling to and from the meeting or Association activity.

7.3 Payment of an allowance shall be subject to submission by the Director of a duly completed claim on the standard form produced by the Association.

8 PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT (ARTICLES 14 AND 80 TO 81)

8.1 A candidate for election as President must be nominated by two Directors (including him or herself).

8.2 The vote for the election of the President shall take place at a meeting of the Board of Directors held within six months prior to the Annual General meeting at which his or her election takes effect.

8.3 A candidate for the office of President who is unopposed shall be declared to be duly elected thereto.

8.4 If there is more than one candidate for the office of the President, the election shall be secret written ballot at a meeting of the Board of Directors. A Director shall be entitled to cast one vote for one candidate.

The candidate who receives the highest number of votes shall be deemed elected, if approved by a resolution passed by a majority of votes at the meeting of the Board of Directors. In the event of an equality of votes, the election shall be decided by lot, the draw being made by the General Secretary.

- 8.5 The results of the election of the President shall be declared at the Annual General Meeting of the Association following his or her election. The election of the President shall take effect as from the close of that Annual General Meeting.
- 8.6 The person elected to be President shall serve as Vice-President for two years after his or her election takes effect and thereafter as the President for two years. Upon completion of his or her term of office the President shall not be eligible to stand for re-election to that office.
- 8.7 A person will not be eligible to stand for election as President if at the time his or her election to that office would take effect he or she would have been a Director for more than eight consecutive years.
- 8.8 If there is a vacancy in the office of President, the Vice-President (then in office) shall be the President and hold office for the unexpired term of office of the person who has vacated the office of President and thereafter for two years, subject to serving a maximum period which shall expire at the end of the third Annual General Meeting of the Association following filling such vacancy.
- 8.9 If there is a vacancy in the office of Vice-President, the Directors may elect a person from the Directors to fill that vacancy in accordance with the procedures in Regulations 8.3 and 8.4.

Such person so elected shall hold office as Vice-President for the unexpired term of office of the person who has vacated that office and thereafter as the President for two years.

- 8.10 The President and the Vice-President shall be paid an annual allowance of such sum agreed by the Board of Directors for the performance of their duties in that office.

9 PRESIDENT'S CONSULTATION GROUP (ARTICLE 102)

- 9.1 The President's Consultation Group shall consist of:
- 9.1.1 the President, Vice-President and other Directors;
 - 9.1.2 two liaison officers for each Area;
 - 9.1.3 any additional representatives from the Areas who wish to attend a meeting of the Group.
- 9.2 The General Secretary shall call meetings of the President's Consultation Group.

9.3 The General Secretary may determine rules for regulating the proceedings of the President's Consultation Group.

10 PROCEEDINGS OF AREAS

10.1 An "Area" is a part of the United Kingdom from time to time declared to be an Area by the Board of Directors.

10.2 An Area is incorporated within the Association and accordingly is not an independent organisation from the Association.

10.3 Each Full Member, Student Member, Retired Member and Associate Member is a member of the Area in which he/she resides or works but may attend any Area meeting.

10.4 The sole purpose of an Area is to carry out the Association's Objects and an Area shall not carry on any activities which do not further the Association's Objects.

10.5 Each Area may elect a Chair and Secretary from amongst its members and may elect a committee from amongst its members to administer its activities.

10.6 Each Area shall elect or appoint two liaison officers to attend meetings of the President's Consultation Group.

10.7 An Area may raise and hold funds which shall only be spent on activities within the Association's Objects. Any funds of an Area in excess of £1,000 must be deposited with the Association in such manner as its Finance Director directs but can be withdrawn for specific expenditure by the Area. All such funds belong to the Association to be applied towards the Area's activities for so long as the Area remains recognised by the Board of Directors.

10.8 An Area may organise and hold meetings or events for educational or social purposes as agreed by the Area. All such meetings and events must be organised through the Membership Department of the Association.

10.9 The Area liaison officers will report to meetings of the President's Consultation Group on the activities and proceedings of their Area.

10.10 Subject to compliance with the Articles and the Regulations, an Area may make such rules to administer its affairs as it think fits.
