Policy for Candidates withdrawing from an ABDO Examination

A candidate who does not attend an examination can apply for a partial refund, under certain circumstances.

If a candidate's refund request is successful, the candidate will be expected to re-apply for the next examination session by submitting a new application form and enclosing the appropriate examination fee.

A cancelled entry and examination fee already paid cannot be transferred from one session to the next.

All refund requests must be made in writing and attached to this "Request to Withdraw from an Examination(s) form".

An Admin charge of £20.00 will be deducted for each withdrawal.

Criteria

Illness or Injury

An examination fee refund of 80% may be given, provided that the withdrawal is notified to ABDO Examinations in writing as soon as possible and no later than five days after the examination.

The withdrawal must be supported by a medical certificate.

Exceptional Personal Circumstances

An examination fee refund of 80% may be given on compassionate grounds if a candidate withdraws due to exceptional personal circumstances, such as bereavement or personal trauma (documentary evidence must be provided, i.e. medical certificate).

Application for a discretionary refund should be made in writing as soon as possible and no later than five days after the examination, with full details substantiating the request for an exceptional refund.

Reasons for a Withdrawal for which no refund will be made:

- Candidate not ready for examination;
- Candidate withdrawn by Training Institute;
- Candidates' PQP Folder not submitted by deadline;
- Submitted PQP folder incomplete resulting in removal from exam;
- Transport issue (Candidates sitting a morning practical examination are advised to travel the day before);
- Candidate on holiday on date of examination.

In the event a candidate needs to withdraw on the day of their Practical Examination, candidates should email the following contacts:

Mark Chandler, mchandler@abdo.org.uk

Miranda Richardson, mrichardson@abdo.org.uk
