2026 Graduation and Prize Giving Ceremony

Canterbury Cathedral, Tuesday 12 May 2026

Welcome to our very special occasion

Welcome to Canterbury Cathedral and the 2026 Association of British Dispensing Opticians Graduation and Prize Giving Ceremony. This magnificent Cathedral is alive with history; from its origins as a small church built by St Augustine in the 6th century, through 1,400 years of development and change into the beautiful building which surrounds us today. It is the perfect setting for this important event and I look forward to the pleasure of conferring graduate status upon our new colleagues. Graduating in such splendid surroundings is a special privilege and I am very pleased to see that we have so many to honour here today.

The following pages contain the list of graduands upon whom the Fellowship of the Association of British Dispensing Opticians will be conferred, and also the names of those due to receive higher honours and special prizes.

The act of graduation follows a time honoured tradition. The graduands approach the dais one by one to be congratulated and receive the ceremonial handshake. This official handshake is the key to graduation, because at that moment our graduands become graduates and stand on equal terms with their colleagues within their chosen profession of dispensing optics.

Our graduands have worked long and hard towards this day and I am sure that their families and friends are very proud of the achievements which we are celebrating. I should like to add my personal congratulations on their successes and I hope that everyone will remember this very special occasion for many years to come.

Kevin Gutsell FBDO (Hons) SLD
President, Association of British Dispensing Opticians

Doors to the Cathedral will open at 1.30pm and the ceremony will commence at 2.00pm

About the Association

The Association of British Dispensing Opticians (ABDO) was formed in 1986 when the Association of Dispensing Opticians and the Faculty of Dispensing Opticians, were merged following the Health and Social Security Act of 1984. The profession of dispensing opticians has been regulated voluntarily since 1926 and, as a statutory profession, by the 1958 Opticians Act; since when the conduct of dispensing opticians has been regulated partly by legal provisions, by advice given by the General Optical Council and by ABDO's own Advice & Guidelines to Fellows.

ABDO is the only professional body solely dedicated to the interests of dispensing opticians, both individually and collectively, and to the profession of dispensing optics. Since it was founded the total number of members has more than doubled.

ABDO currently has over 7,600 members and represents over 5,600 qualified dispensing opticians in the UK. It also has approximately 1,300 student members worldwide.

ABDO's purpose

ABDO's purpose is to support and represent its members, to promote awareness of their roles, to enable their professional development and to advance the profession as a whole.

ABDO's priorities

ABDO's priorities in this anniversary year are to:

1. Show the value of dispensing opticians and contact lens opticians
2. Enable members to develop their roles
3. Improve member services and support

In its annual plan, ABDO has outlined a comprehensive programme of work across its key priority areas.

This includes promoting the findings of our pay and reward survey, which provides a comprehensive benchmark for salaries and benefits and supporting members in gaining improved recognition and advancing their careers. Showcasing the vital roles played by our members as part of celebrating 100 years of the profession. Shining a spotlight on the impact members make every day in practice and across the sector delivering our Diploma in Paediatric Eyecare, which covers the latest developments in children's eyecare.

During the year, we will also be developing a new strategic plan that will guide our work on behalf of members for the three-year period starting in January 2027

ABDO is the professional body for dispensing opticians in the UK and some of its core activities include:

- Political and legislative lobbying for the rights and status of dispensing opticians.
- Providing professional advice and guidelines.
- Setting the syllabus for all ophthalmic dispensing examinations.
- Acting as an awarding body for ophthalmic dispensing qualifications.
- Conducting examinations and providing trained examiners.
- Providing extensive CPD.
- Encouraging lifelong learning and the provision of higher/honours qualifications.
- Providing a comprehensive range of membership benefits.
- Working proactively with other optical bodies.

A short history of Canterbury Cathedral

100 years
of Dispensing Opticians
Celebrating the past. Inspiring the future
1926-2026

Canterbury Cathedral is alive with history and fascinating stories. The information below provides a brief insight into this magnificent building.

St Augustine, the first Archbishop of Canterbury, arrived on the coast of Kent as a missionary to England in 597 AD. He came from Rome, sent by Pope Gregory the Great. Augustine was given a church at Canterbury (St Martin's, after St Martin of Tours, still standing today) by the local King, Ethelbert whose Queen, Bertha, a French Princess, was already a Christian. This building had been a place of worship during the Roman occupation of Britain and is the oldest church in England still in use. Augustine established his seat within the Roman city walls (the Latin word for a seat is cathedra, from which the word cathedral is derived) and built the first cathedral there, becoming the first Archbishop of Canterbury. Since that time, there has been a community around the Cathedral offering daily prayer to God; this community is arguably the oldest organisation in the English speaking world. The Rt Revd Dr Justin Welby, is 105th in the line of succession from Augustine. Augustine's original building lies beneath the floor of the nave – it was extensively rebuilt and enlarged by the Saxons, and the Cathedral was rebuilt completely by the Normans in 1070 following a major fire. There have been many additions to the building over the last nine hundred years, but parts of the quire and some of the windows and their stained glass date from the 12th century.

The best known event in the Cathedral's history is the murder of Archbishop Thomas Becket in 1170. Canterbury, always on the medieval pilgrim route to Rome, became an end in itself, as thousands came to worship at Becket's tomb, especially after his canonisation in 1173. Geoffrey Chaucer's pilgrims in his poem, The Canterbury Tales, were by no means unique. They represented the hundreds of thousands who travelled to the Cathedral to pray, repent or be healed at his shrine. (The word canter comes from the pace of the pilgrims' horses as they rode to the Cathedral.) The tradition of pilgrimage is very much alive today, although the journey is now faster and considerably more comfortable. Thomas' shrine was destroyed in 1538 on the orders of King Henry VIII; today, a simple candle marks the place where it once stood and the pink stone before it bears the imprint of thousands of pilgrims' knees. When Becket was made Archbishop of Canterbury by King Henry II in 1162, he changed his total allegiance from the King to the Pope and the Church. Henry had expected his full support, and there were many conflicts between them, the final one being Thomas' excommunication of the Archbishop of York and the Bishops of London and Salisbury for their support for Henry's attacks on the rights of Thomas as Archbishop. Not only had the King's agents used Thomas' property while he was in exile in France but, in the summer of 1170, King Henry had his son crowned as his heir by these and other Bishops, usurping a long standing right of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Four knights overheard the King's rage and took seriously his shout of "Who will rid me of this meddlesome priest?" On 29 December 1170 they entered the Archbishop's lodgings from Palace Street; the monks persuaded Thomas to enter the Cathedral from his Palace through the Cloisters and into the North West Transept. Vespers was in progress when the knights burst in, and found Thomas kneeling at the altar.

According to Edward Grim, a monk who watched the murder, Thomas refused to absolve the Bishops and told the knights that "for the name of Jesus and the protection of the Church, I am ready to embrace death." The knights wielded their weapons and administered three mighty blows, the last one breaking off the tip of a sword. Three days after his death, there began a series of miracles attached to his martyrdom. These are depicted in the miracle windows of the Trinity Chapel. In 1173, Becket was canonised by Pope Alexander III. Pilgrims began to flock to Thomas' shrine in the Cathedral; a year later Henry, in sackcloth, walking barefoot, was among them.

During the Civil War of the 1640s, the Cathedral suffered damage at the hands of the Puritans; much of the medieval stained glass was smashed and horses were stabled in the nave. After the Restoration in 1660, several years were spent in repairing the building. In the early 19th century, the North West tower was found to be dangerous. It was demolished in the early 1830s and replaced by a copy of the South West tower, thus giving a symmetrical appearance to the west end of the Cathedral.

ABDO has been privileged and proud to be able to use the Cathedral as a venue for the Association's annual graduation and prize giving ceremony since 2004.

Working with robe makers Ede & Ravenscroft, thought to be the oldest firm of tailors in the world, ABDO commissioned new academic dress for its Fellows in 2012. Designed by fully acknowledging the traditional origination process, the colourful green and gold hoods are derived from the core colours of the Association crest.

The basic item of academic dress is the gown which has evolved over the centuries from clergy robes. The ABDO gowns are plain black and open fronted and there are two styles, one for those who hold the FBDO, FBDO CL, FBDO R, PROF CERT PE qualifications and one for those who have acquired FBDO (Hons) CL, FBDO (Hons) LVA, FBDO (Hons) SLD honours qualifications and Honorary Fellows, HonFBDO. There are also two different versions of the ABDO hood, the honours hood being faced with green (25mm) on the cape edge.

The headwear for ABDO qualifications is the mortar board.

Order of proceedings

11.00am to 1.15pm: Registration

Upon arrival at the Cathedral all graduands should report immediately for registration in the Clagett Auditorium reception area so that gowns and tickets can be collected from Ede & Ravenscroft staff within the Clagett Auditorium. Guests are not allowed to enter the Clagett Auditorium so graduands should arrange to meet their guests in another area of the Cathedral precincts after they have registered. If access or seating for the disabled is required please make this known at the time of registration.

11.00am to 1.00pm: Official photography will be conducted by Ede & Ravenscroft in the International Study Centre. 1.30 pm: All graduands must be assembled as advised on the day. The official graduands' group photography and procession briefing will take place.

1.30pm: The main Cathedral doors will open for guests to take their seats.

Photographs may be taken during the ceremony. Please be mindful of those sitting behind you and remain seated whilst taking them. No recording is permitted. If you have a mobile phone, please ensure that it is switched to silent for the duration of the ceremony

Guests are requested to take their seats as directed before the entry of the graduands; they should remain seated whilst the graduands enter and stand only when the Dignitaries' Procession begins.

Preceded by the Procession Marshal, Ed Fox, the graduands will enter the Cathedral. (As the students enter they are called 'graduands', since it is not until their award has been conferred that they become 'graduates'.) The graduands will take their seats before the start of the ceremony, which is heralded by the entry of the Dignitaries' Procession.

There will be a brief introduction by Mark Chandler, ABDO's Head of Examinations, followed by a welcome address by Kevin Gutsell, the ABDO President and an address by Fiona Anderson, Master of the Worshipful Company of Spectacle Makers, after which the conferral of awards and prizes will commence.

The exit of the final Dignitaries' Procession marks the end of the ceremony. Graduates and guests are asked to remain standing until the Dignitaries' Procession has left the Cathedral.

At the end of the ceremony graduates and their guests are kindly requested to vacate the Cathedral as soon as possible.
